

A summary of the governing board's duties to review the headteacher's exclusion decision

Conditions of exclusion

Governing board duties

Does the exclusion meet any of the following conditions?

- It is a permanent exclusion
- It is a suspension that alone, or in conjunction with previous suspensions, will take the pupil's total number of days out of school above 15 for a term
- It is a suspension or permanent exclusion that will result in the pupil missing a public exam or national curriculum test*

Yes

The governing board must convene a meeting to consider reinstatement within 15 school days of receiving notice of the suspension or permanent exclusion.⁴⁹

*If the pupil will miss a public exam or national curriculum test, the governing board must take reasonable steps to meet before the date of the examination. If this is not practical, the chair of governors may consider pupil's reinstatement alone.⁵⁰

No

Will the suspension(s) take the pupil's total number of school days out of school above five but less than 16 for the term?

No

The governing board must consider any representations made by parents and has the power to consider the reinstatement of the pupil.

Yes

Have the pupil's parents requested a governing board meeting?

Yes

The governing board must convene a meeting to consider reinstatement within 50 school days of receiving notice of the suspension.

No

The governing board is not required to consider the suspension but does have the power to consider the reinstatement of the pupil.

⁴⁹ The governing board may delegate its functions to consider a suspension or permanent exclusion to a designated committee.

⁵⁰ The ability for a chair to review in the case of public exams refers only to maintained schools.
